Pat Callan was awarded the President's award for his contributions and hard work to the club throughout the year. Robin also displayed the sign to be posted for Jim Unruh's contribution to the club.

Cliff asked if there was any interest in a New Year's Eve party at the clubhouse at the field.

Bob Covish mentioned that Dan Massey's medical condition is improving but not as well as the doctors would like.

Blue Max Award

Loyd Ligon received a Giant Scale P-51 for his many years of service and hard work for the club. It is well deserved and we all know he will enjoy his new plane.

The meeting was adjourned and the Christmas party followed with 48 members and guests attending. With lots of good food and good friends all enjoyed the party.
